to whom:

There is no time like the present for us to join forces and champion for change. Help the Eanes community raise its collective voice with cries for changes in state funding of our schools. Write a letter TODAY to urge support for what is important to us all... a quality education for our children. Review the talking points provided on the back of this page and send a fax, letter or email TODAY with a personalized plea for what you believe in. If we all raise our voices, we shall be heard!

saying what: ...class size is important!
